To Whom It May Concern

I have known Paul D'Angelo of D'Angelo Legal for a year now and have had a number of business dealings with him on both a commercial level and as well on a personal level. I have found Paul to be very professional and transparent in all my dealings with him and clients that I have referred to Paul have had nothing but praise for him. Paul is very knowledgeable in his field of work as a solicitor and I have no hesitation in recommending him to any one of my business or personal clients.

Yours faithfully
